

Your Invited to submit an entry to Pagosa Baking Company's Inaugural Gingerbread Contest 2024

2024 Theme: A Happy, Healthy, Home

A total of 12 entries will be accepted with prizes being awarded in each three categories. The categories and registration fees are as follows:

Family - $25

Adult (18+) - $25

Teen (12 -17) - $15

This contest also serves as a fundraising event benefiting Rise Above Violence. In addition to the category prizes, each team is encouraged to have friends and family vote for their gingerbread house by donating $1/vote. The contestant that raises the most money receives the RISE Prize!

Space is limited to 12 entries with the goal of increasing the size in the future, so don't wait to sign up! Fill out the entry form and turn it in to Pagosa Baking Company as soon as possible!

Contest Rules:

- Applicants will be accepted in order of date/time received, starting November 8, 2024. Fill out the entry form to apply Or pick up a form at Pagosa Baking Company. All forms must be submitted at Pagosa Baking Company.
- You will be given a 12"x12" board on which to build your gingerbread house. You'll also be provided with foil to cover your board. Max height for your house is 10".
- All materials (except board) must be edible, for example, no milk cartons. NO KITS.
- Category awards will be judged on creativity and taste - include an element that can be removed for tasting!
- Entries must be delivered to Pagosa Baking Company on Sunday December 1st or Monday December 2nd, between 10a.m. and 2p.m.
- Winners will be announced Sunday December 8th at the Pagosa Baking Company Holiday Open House from 3p.m. to 5.p.m. You do not have to be present to win.
- Share your houses with family and friends. Entries can be voted on for $1 per vote, using the assigned QR code (received after we get your entry form and registration information). The house that gets the most votes wins the special RISE Prize!

Please make registration checks payable to Rise Above Violence.

All entry fees and proceeds from the Happy Healthy Home Gingerbread Contest go directly to Rise Above Violence, a non-profit dedicated to helping individuals and families live violence free.